A. A series of articles written by Roman ILNYTSKYY concerning events in Cracow during the latter part of June 1941 which affected the OUN and the Ukrainian government. Although these articles are one man's point of view, they should be a valuable contribution toward a study of this phase of Ukrainian political efforts. It is noted that numerous personalities of direct or indirect interest to KUBARK are listed in these articles which are entitled, "In Cracow in the Eve of 22 June 1941" and "The Events of 20 June 1941 and their Political Background".

B. An article entitled, "Oleksa HASYN, Chief of the UPA General Staff", written by Rev. MYSOFULYAK (see EGMA-15947).

C. Articles taken from German newspapers concerning the CERNAK assassination; note Immanuel BIRNBAUM's criticism of emigres in his article dated 7 July 1955. The article dated 23 August 1955 describes CERNAK's numerous contacts, including Alexander MATUS, Antonin KUBICEK, fnu MARKANUK, Oberon HERBERT, Bruno FOLTA and Dr. Otto JOHN.

D. Four articles of an ideological nature written by Yevhen BURSHTYNSKY (Evhen BOBIKEVICH for the URDP/Left publication, Vpered (see EGMA-15923)).
